

18TH REFORMED MUSIC FESTIVAL
26-28TH MAY, 2023.
BUDAPEST
KÁLVIN SQUARE, RÁDAY STREET, BAKÁTS SQUARE

PROGRAM

(subject to change)

MAY 26 (FRIDAY)

BAKÁTS SQUARE

- 3.45 p.m. Meeting at Kálvin Square, musical procession along Ráday Street to Bakáts Square. Musical service provided by the Veszprém Air Force Band of the Hungarian Defence Forces.
- 4 p.m. Opening Service with Rev. Gábor Káposztás (Pastor, Reformed Church in Hungary).
- 4.30-5 p.m. Cantus Dei – Contributing artists: Alex Berkesi (bass guitar), Boglárka Berkesi (vocals), János Nagy (keyboard), Szilárd Banai (drums), Kovács Bálint (guitar).
- 5.30 p.m. Dalinda (Music band with Fanni Nádasdy, Sára Tímár, Julianna Paár).
- 6.45 p.m. Söndörgő (Music band with Áron Eredics, Benjamin Eredics, Dávid Eredics, Salamon Eredics, Ábel Dénes).
- 8 p.m. Magidom (Music band with Benyhe Robi [guitar, vocals]; Balázs Bajnok [guitar, vocals]; Peti Pánczél [bass guitar], Marci Benyhe [drums], Máté Szekeres [keyboard, vocals]).

MAY 27 (SATURDAY)BAKÁTS SQUARE

- 10 a.m. Pentecost children's programme with Szilvia Bognár.
- 11 a.m. Musical animal stories with Eszter Karasszon (cello), Éva Szalai (piano), Gabriella Mesterházy (story-teller).
- 1 p.m. Búgócsiga Zenede (Interactive playful concert for children and families).
- 2-2.30 p.m. Fricska Dance Group (A modern folkdance performance, a phenomenal success on the Britain's Got Talent show).
- 2.30 p.m. Kreatív Kráter Kör: Masquerade performance (Interactive show by a stilt walker-artist and juggling team).
- 3 p.m. Tázló Band folk dance-house accompanied by live Moldavian csángó folk music (Gathering in front of the stage followed by a walk to Ráday Street 28.)
- 4 p.m. Wind+ Ensemble: Frivolous Classics - Around The World with the artists of the Budapest Philharmonic Society (Popular tunes performed by a wind quintet and dancers).
- 5.30 p.m. Saint Ephraim Male Choir (Sacred music of the East and West and some of their own compositions).
- 7 p.m. István Tabáni and the Finucci Bros Quartet: Péter Máté tuned to jazz (The former winner of Hungarian television show, The Star Is Born, performs Péter Máté's jazz arrangements with the popular jazz quartet).
- 8 p.m. Tárkány Művek (A combination of Balkan folk music and the chansons of the interwar period).

MAY 27 (SATURDAY)

REFORMED CHURCH, KÁLVIN SQUARE

Organ Marathon: Solo works and organ chamber music.

Contributing artistes:

- 2-2.30 p.m. Miklós Teleki, organist (Featuring Eszter Draskóczy [violin]).
- 2.30-3 p.m. János Pálúr, organist.
- 3-3.30 p.m. Lázár Balogh, organist (Featuring Katalin Kiss [oboe]).
- 3.30-4 p.m. Ferenc Monostori, organist (Featuring Imre Zubor [trumpet]).
- 4-4.30 p.m. Csilla Alföldy-Boruss, organist (Featuring Eszter Alföldy-Boruss [flute]).
- 4.30-5 p.m. Jakab Hedvig, organist.
- 5-5.30 p.m. Attila Vadász, organist (Featuring Albert Emese [flute]).
- 5.30-6 p.m. Balázs Szabó, organist (Featuring Gergely Devich [cello]).
- 6-6.30 p.m. Balázs Méhes, organist (Featuring Barnabás Hegyi [vocals]).
- 8 p.m. Joseph Haydn: The Saviour's Last Seven Words On The Cross - By the musicians of the Budapest Philharmonic Society. Contributing artists: Áron Dóczi (violin), András Tallián (violin), Balázs Tóth (viola), László Pólus (cello). Narrator: Bendegúz Kovách.

MAY 27 (SATURDAY)

KÁLVIN CHAMBER GARDEN (1092 BUDAPEST., RÁDAY UTCA. 1. INNER COURTYARD)

- 2 p.m. Invocatio Musicalis (Reformed songs in a modern arrangement).
- 3 p.m. Duet by Mátyás Bartha and Mátyás Papp: Hymns (Jazz arrangements of Reformed songs).
- 4 p.m. Borbély Műhely (A mix of jazz, folk music, world music and contemporary music).
- 5 p.m. Symbiosis 5 (Demanding jazz from young artists).
- 6 p.m. János Nagy Trio (Acclaimed jazz compositions of composer János Nagy).
- 7 p.m. Balázs Bágyi New Quartet (Fantastic jazz music of the acclaimed drummer-composer's band).

